

PARTICIPATION RULES

It is assumed, by virtue of the fact they are here for a serious purpose, that participants are mature enough to respect others and to provide a framework within which all symposium participants can operate, with each action in good taste and appropriate to the primary purpose of their being here. Failure to follow these simple guidelines may result in participants being sent home and not being invited to participate in future sessions.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES AND DRUGS

Alcoholic beverages may not be consumed at any time during the conference. When alcohol is available at conference-related activities, students should exercise discretion. The use of any form of narcotic drug is expressly prohibited.

STUDENTS STAYING IN THE HOSTELS

Students staying in the hostels are reminded that they have a great deal of responsibility towards their hosts as well as towards their fellow residents. Your cooperation is needed to ensure the on-going success of this program. The organization won't take responsibility of participants belongings left at the hostels.

DRESS CODE

As a serious and professional conference, the C'MUN expects personal appearance to be appropriate for a professional setting. Participants should not wear clothing, jewellery or accessories which are distracting, inappropriate, or which may call attention to themselves either individually or as a group.

Inappropriate dress includes, but is not limited to:

- Team accessories such as scarves, hats, non C'MUN accreditations...
- Sports shoes and denim clothes
- Military attire.

Boys should be dressed in a formal suit, shirt and tie or similar alternative, i.e. blazer or jacket with formal trousers. Girls should be dressed equally formally in suits, smart separates (whether trousers or skirts) or dresses.

Formal dress is NOT required for the farewell dinner

ACCREDITATIONS

Take great care of your accreditation. If you do not have it, you will not be allowed into meetings. A new badge can only be applied for from the Conference Management. The participant must pay then a fee of 5 € at the time of the request.

C'MUN SESSIONS

All participants are expected to attend all the meetings. Not attendance to the whole sessions will imply not receiving the certificate.

POSTERS AND NOTICES

No posters or notices are allowed on any walls, doors or other areas in the Congress' venue without the explicit permission from the Conference Management.
